“Land and Lifestyle – Prior to 1500”

Grade 4 Curriculum: Characteristics of Early Societies

1. Introduction to our Indigenous History Exhibit at Macaulay Heritage Park, highlighting artifacts from our collection that speak to early societies here - with Q&A
2. What natural attributes of Prince Edward County would have made it a good spot for encampments or settlements? What attributes might have been challenging?
3. Which First Nations were here, prior to the 1500s? Focus on the Haudenosaunee (and the dawn of the Five Nations Confederacy), the Wendat, the St. Lawrence Iroquoians.
4. Describe significant aspects of daily life in Haudenosaunee society: food, housing, clothing, education, recreation, spiritual life, family life, transportation, and ceremonies.
