

Rules for Development Charges

The main rules for determining if a development charge is payable in a particular case, and for determining the amount of the charge, are as follows:

1. Development Charges By-Law No. 4172-2018 applies to all lands in The Corporation of the County of Prince Edward.
2. Development Charges shall be calculated and be payable on the date the building permit is issued.
3. The following uses are wholly exempt from development charges under the by-law:
  - Lands owned by and used for purposes of a municipality, local board thereof, or board of education;
  - An interior alteration to an existing building or structure which does not change or intensify the use of the land;
  - The enlargement of an existing residential dwelling unit, or the creation of one or two additional units where specific conditions are met;
  - The enlargement of the gross floor area of an existing industrial building where the gross floor area is enlarged by 50 percent or less of the original gross floor area of the industrial building prior to the first expansion;
  - A public hospital exempt from taxation under Section 3 of the Assessment Act;
  - A non-residential farm building;
  - A place of worship;
  - New industrial development;
  - A temporary building or structure.
4. A reduction in development charges is also allowed for affordable housing, as defined in the by-law, for any residential dwelling unit for which the purchase price is at least 25% less than the average purchase price for the same type of residential dwelling unit in the County of Prince Edward and for any residential dwelling unit where the monthly rent is at or below the maximum affordable monthly rent amount established by the Residential Rental Standards Board for the Province of Ontario (refer to Section 3.14.1 of By-law No. 4172-2018).

The schedule of development charges will be adjusted annually in accordance with the most recent twelve month change in the Statistics Canada Quarterly, "Construction Price Statistics, Non-residential building price index".

Purpose of Development Charges

The general purpose for which the County imposes development charges is to assist in meeting the County's financial requirements in providing the infrastructure required by future development in the municipality through the establishment of a viable capital funding source.

The Council of the Corporation of the County of Prince Edward via By-law No. 4217-2018 on March 1, 2018 passed uniform County-wide development charges.
