

PROCLAMATION

November is Financial Literacy Month

WHEREAS, November 2026 marks the 16th anniversary of Financial Literacy Month, helping Canadians strengthen their financial knowledge and skills with the goal of improving their financial well-being; and

WHEREAS, Throughout November, Prince Edward Learning Centre and many other organizations across the country host events and share resources to help strengthen the financial literacy of Canadians and build their financial resilience; and

WHEREAS, All stakeholders have a role to play in helping Canadians destigmatize conversations about money in order to reduce barriers and collectively help build confidence, improve financial outcomes and foster financial resilience; and

WHEREAS, This year's campaign theme is "Talk Money." It encourages Canadians to have open, purposeful conversations about personal finance to build confidence and reduce money-related stress

THEREFORE, I, Steve Ferguson, Mayor of the Corporation of the County of Prince Edward, do hereby recognize the month of November 2026 as "Financial Literacy Month" in Prince Edward County.

DATED at Picton this 22nd day of September 2026
Mayor Steve Ferguson
